Superintendent's Message

Taylor High School
Taylor, Texas

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

My congratulations, full and complete, go out to the annual staff, sponsor, and all others who worked to make this Mallard the book that it is.

I feel that as the years go by that your time and effort will be appreciated more and more by those who have this book. In future years it will bring memories of friends, pleasures, and achievements of your school days.

Also, commendations are extended to the faculty, the class now graduating, and to the others of the student body for the excellent work in the classrooms and the many accomplishments achieved in the extra-curricular activities during the school year.

My wish is that each may fulfill the highest usefulness that can be attained in the future as a citizen of our state and nation.

Sincerely,

T.H. Johnson
Superintendent of Schools

Principal's Message

Taylor High School
Taylor, Texas

PRINCIPAL' MESSAGE

I congratulate the Mallard staff for having put into permanent form so vivid a record of this year's outstanding work.

Your high school experiences with the varied work, study, and play activities found there should serve to cement individuals with a common bond. This bond of friendship has greater value, perhaps, than most students realize. The social climate produced in school allows for growth in areas which are necessary for good living.

My wish for you and all succeeding students in Taylor High School is that your time spent has been worth the effort. May your future years be fraught with many more happy experiences in learning and in personal growth.

Sincerely yours,

Howard L. Oliphint

Glenda Poldrack was presented as "Miss Secretary" for 1961. She was given a charm for her charm bracelet.

Sergeant Muhlbradt of the Department of Public Safety spoke on hitting the bull's eye in life.

Jean Hughes, Rosemary Moore, and Lee Ruth Schroeder entertained at the banquet. The theme of the banquet was Hawaii.

Besides drilling and yelling at games, the Green Jackets painted signs, built bonfires, did yells at football boys' homes, decorated goal posts, had a car parade with the band, and decorated the halls at Christmas. To support the Ducks and make money, the Green Jackets sold Ex-Letterman and Booster Club memberships, megaphones, decals, ribbons, and ads for Cotton Boll Relays programs.
