Dedication

We, the Annual Staff of '49 gratefully dedicate this issue of "The Panther" to the late Principal O. L.
Price, to show our appreciation for the thirty years of faithful service as administrator of our school.

Superintendent's Message

Let us always remember that the purpose of this school is to develop competent, self-active, responsible, and socially-minded boys and girls whose lives are founded on faith, courage, intelligence and the will to achieve. Likewise, to the students of the O. L. Price School, you should continually remind yourself of educational and social opportunities which are yours; be sympathetic with your school experiences and utilize the advantages your school offers in developing happy human relations and civil responsibility; cooperate, accept, conform fully and whole-heartedly with the basic rules; be a good citizen, be a loyal student, protect and carry on the tradition and good name of your school.

T. H. Johnson
Superintendent of Schools

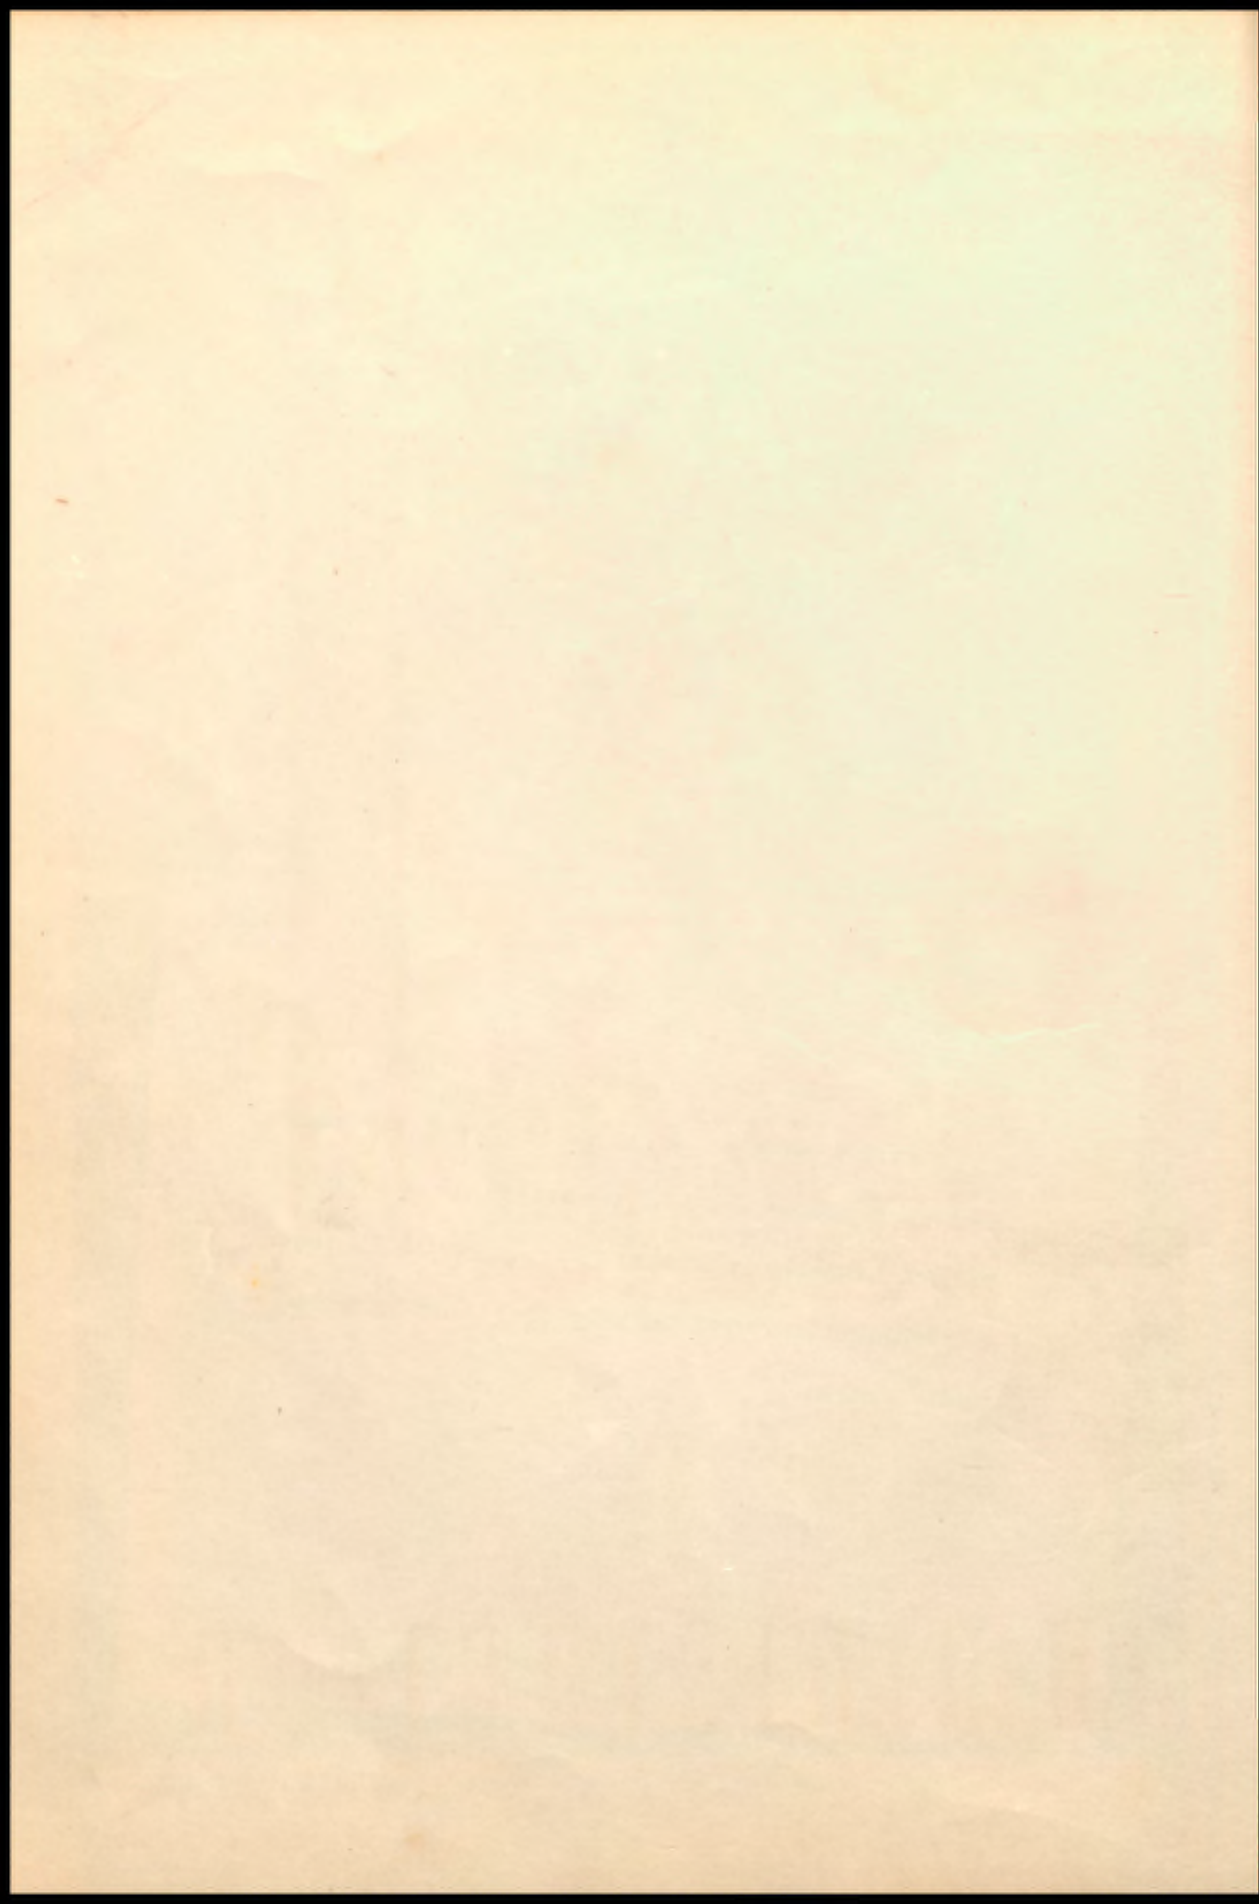

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

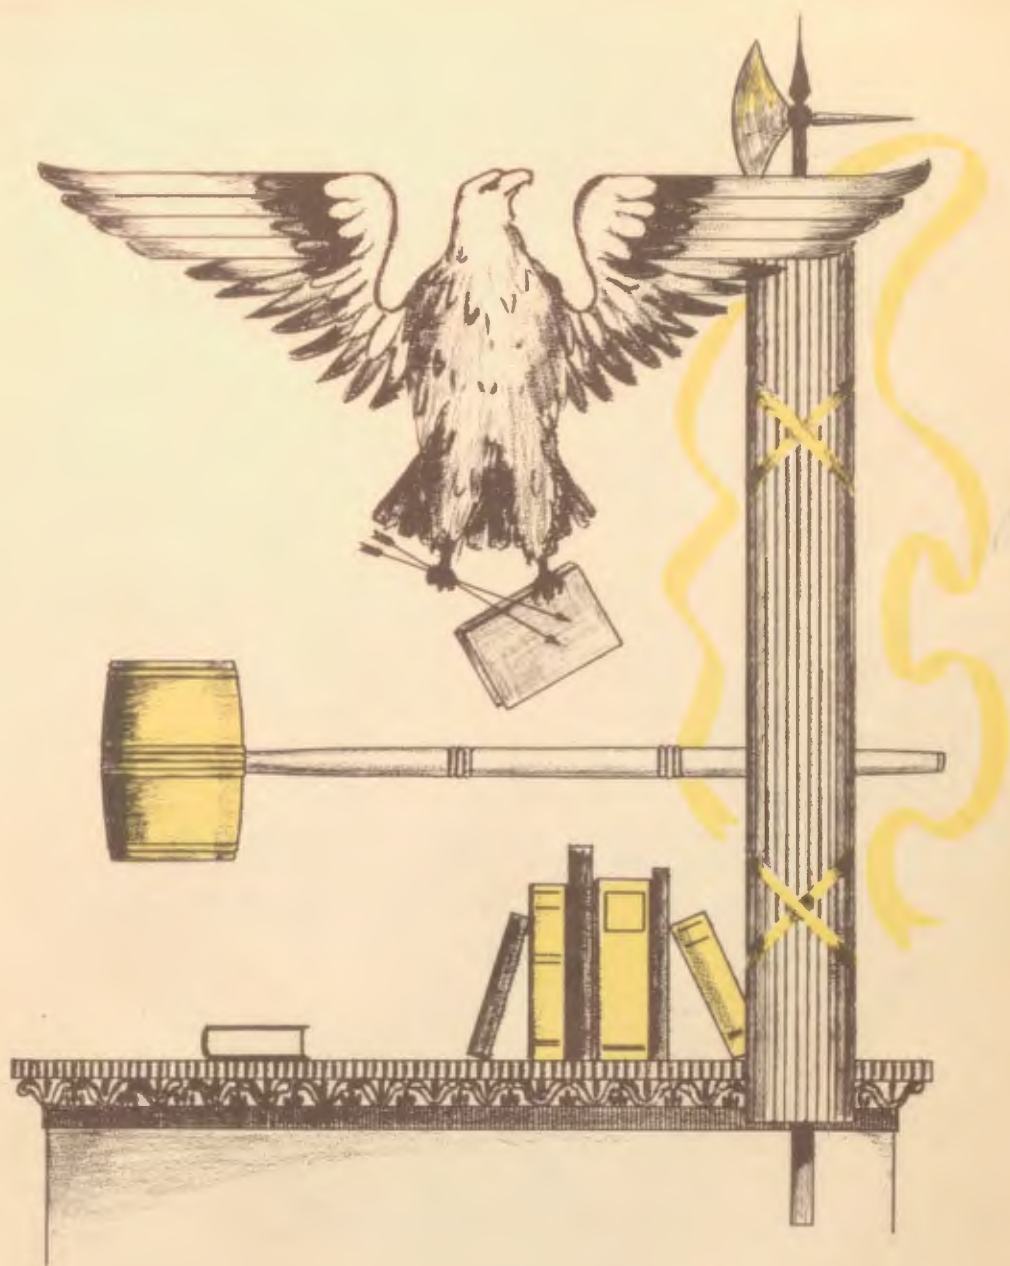

Boys and Girls of The O. L. Price School:

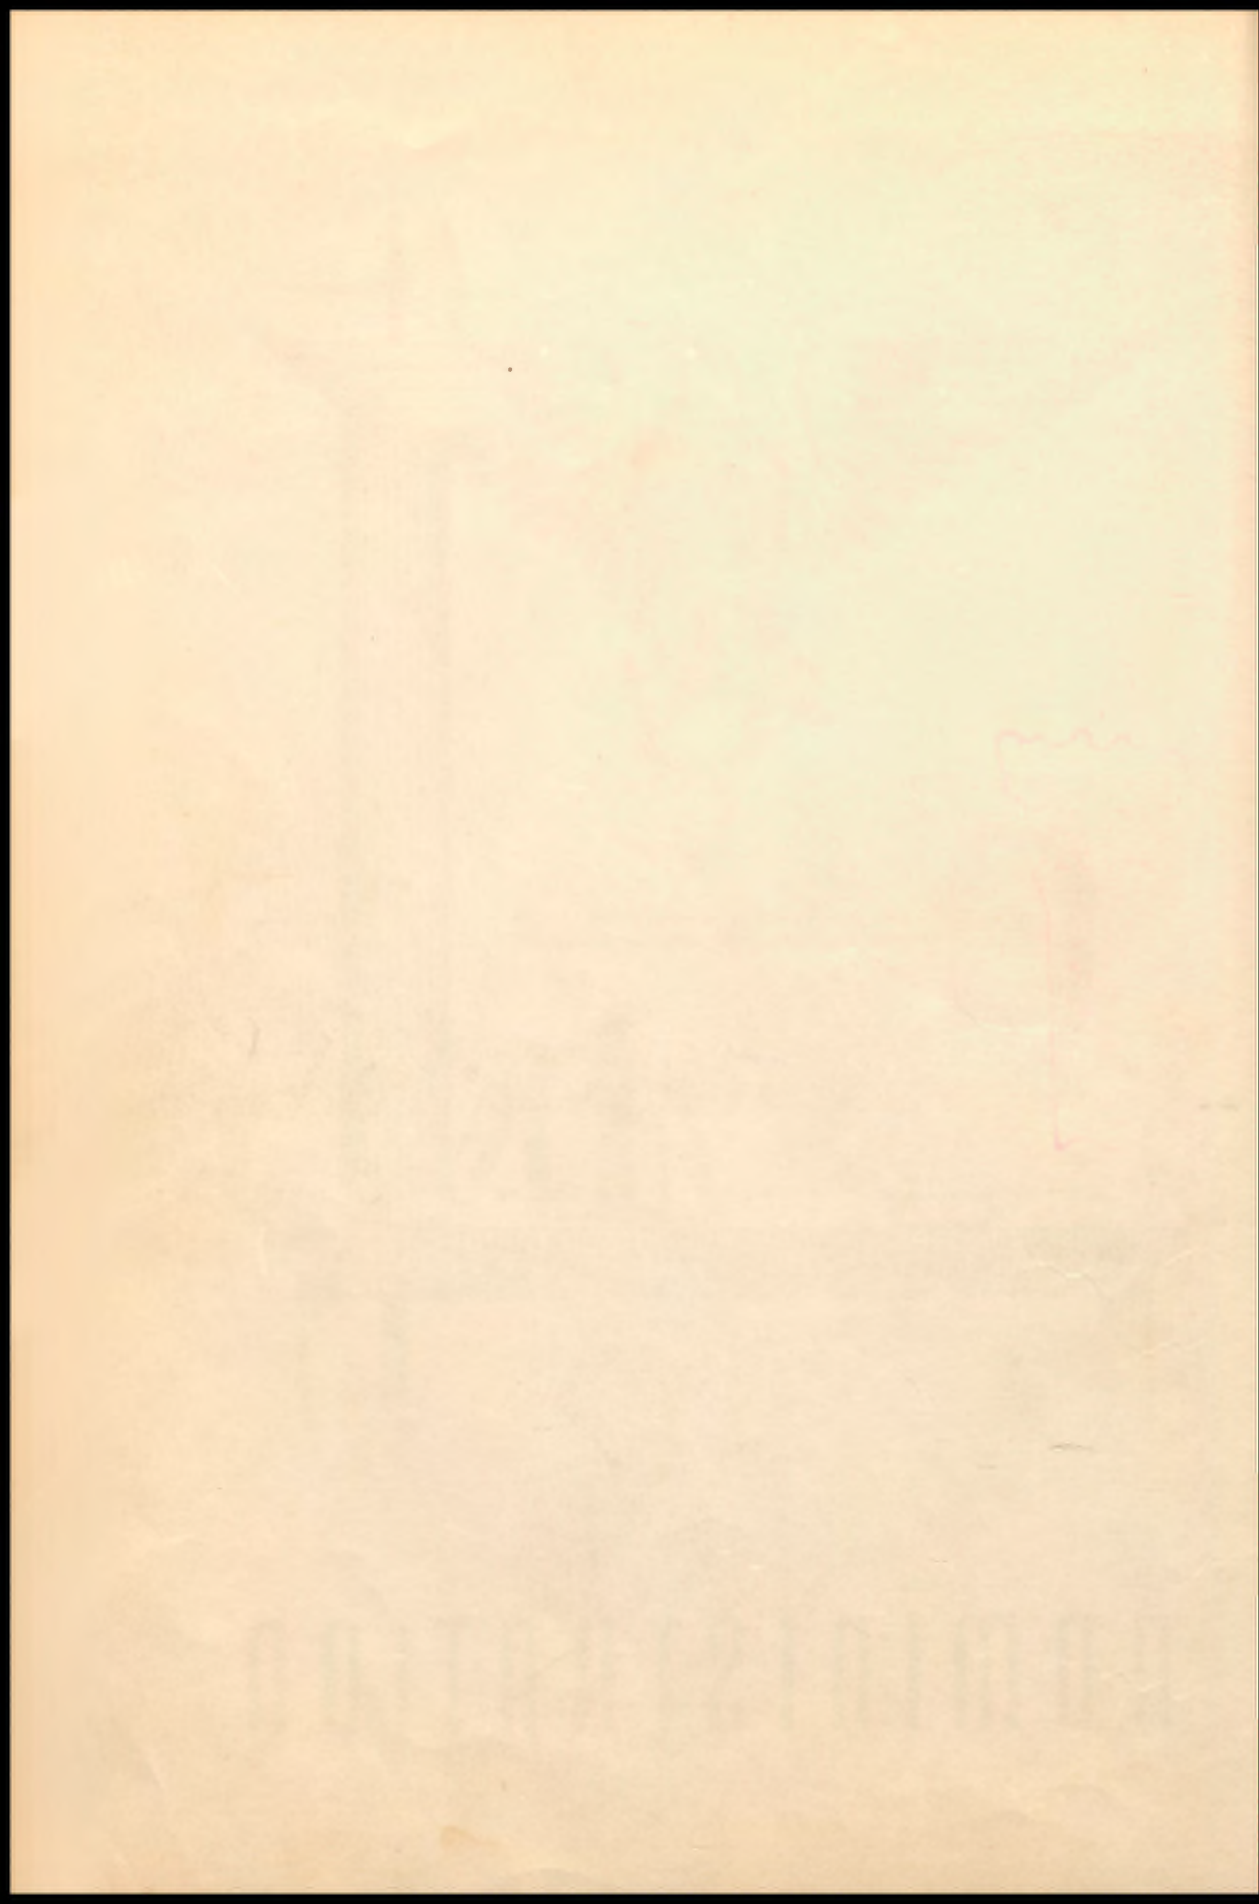

With a chaotic world in prospect for many years, a better type of education than ever before becomes necessary if America is to meet her obligations and to help the other nations meet theirs.
