Dedication

In appreciation of the co-operation he has shown us, we, the annual staff, dedicate this third edition of the Taylor High School "Mallard" to M. Browning Combs, our principal, who after being here only two years, has introduced many worthwhile things into our school life.

Alice Joy Jennings

CARL ANDERSON

That tall guy, Carl, with the red hair and cute freckles who is a mixture of brains, agriculture, and science, gives us the hope and assurance of being a very successful farmer.

KATHLEEN BARRON

Musical from head to toe, Kathleen, our Irish lass, is bound to be a big success if she chooses to follow this field.

SENIORS

ALICE BEYER

Intelligent, friendly, and athletic, Alice makes a hit with everyone. She's a whiz in shorthand and will make a very successful stenographer in some office.

GLADYS BRINKMEYER

Gladys has played volleyball for three years and is a great asset to our team. She hopes to be a homemaker and should make a good one.

IRENE BOUDNY

Bashful and well-liked is our athletic Irene. She is mistress of basketball and volleyball and T. H. S. owes its thanks to her for lots of victories in volleyball games.

DONALD BRIEGER

There is nothing the kids won't do for the glory of "ole Taylor High." Ask Donald about that missing front tooth. That, my children, is football.

WALLACE BRUECKNER

Business manager, scientist or a cute guy describes Wallace. He's friendly and has determination, which will help him win victories in all phases of life he undertakes.

JERRY BURRAN

Quiet and shy, Jerry is well-liked by all his classmates. Jerry likes machines. Here's wish-in' ya good luck, Jerry.

BETTY CAMERON

Betty Jane is one of the hardest working girls in school. Everyone knows her by her friendly smile for everyone. Good luck to you, Betty Jane, wherever you go.

DON CLARK

"Doggy" is the boy with the beautiful blue eyes. Besides being a big asset to T. H. S. sports, he is smart as a whip and plans to be a football coach.

SENIORS

VALORIE CLEMMER

"How To Be Friend To Everyone" in three easy lessons. Just go see Valorie. She knows, because everybody loves her. Wherever she goes next year, we know she will enjoy great popularity.

NORMA EULENFIELD

A whiz in shorthand and typing, Norma Jean will make the perfect secretary. Norma Jean holds a monopoly on the dimples in T. H. S.

NANCY DAVIS

Originality? Wit? That cute brunette Nancy really has it. Her congenial nature and contagious grin wins friends wherever she goes. She plans to enjoy life and settle down when she finds the right guy.

JOYCE EIBEN

Up in the air!—yes. That's where Joyce wants to be as an air hostess. And we are certain that she can make the passengers feel right at home with her friendly smile and personality.

CLAIRE EVANS

Journalism, Journalism, Journalism, is the most used word in Claire's vocabulary. Whenever you see a girl flitting down the hall with beautiful long blond hair, it's our own Claire.

LUCY FITTS

If you ever need someone to help you decorate, call on Lou. Besides helping you, she will entertain you with her wonderful sense of humor and her great big smile.

VELMA FREELS

Lithesome and lovely, Velma has for years contributed to both the academic and social life of T. H. S.—next year she goes to T. L. C. to prepare herself for parish work.

DANA MARIA GLOVER

Poise and personality. Doesn't that fit Dana? Yes, and we're sure that she'll fit into the business world with success.

SENIORS

THOMAS LEONARD GRAY

If you see a boy walking down the hall wearing a beautiful shirt, that's our Leonard. With that pretty blond hair and that twinkle in his eyes, he's sure to go places.

ALICE JOY JENNINGS

Brains? Beauty? Personality? Yes, indeed. All of these belong to that popular blond Alice Joy, who is having a hard time trying to decide what she wants to be.

LA VERNE HEINE

This attractive auburn-haired miss came to T. H. S. from Coupland three years ago. Besides bringing charm and brains, La Verne brought a knack for really spiking a "mean" volleyball.

VIOLET JOHLE

Though Violet isn't a Taylor product, we are all very glad that she did go to T. H. S. for three years and allow us to become acquainted with that "Johle Personality."

A. J. JOHNSON

We have our own "Doc Blanchard" in Taylor Hi. It's A. J.! We will come to see you when you start playing professional football. How's about it, A. J.?

CALVIN HOLMAN

A model airplane enthusiast, Calvin spends all his spare time after football season flying his own model plane at the "Duck Pond."

BILL JOHNSON

Bill's a boy with a problem, he can't decide about any future plans, except concerning one Julia L., but we know he'll make good because of his persuasive powers.

KATHRYN KIRKPATRICK

That little gal with a big smile ready for everyone, especially Moses. Just think, she makes straight A's and yet she's seen everywhere in that Big Gray Buick.

SENIORS

ANITA KOSIK

Anita's the cute little gal with dark eyes. She's not very talkative, but that certainly won't keep her from becoming a capable and successful secretary.

BOBBY LANDRUM

Brainy, handsome and friendly, Bobby gets along with all his classmates in the best way. We know Bobby will do well with his looks and talent for math and science.

BARNEY KREBS

Shy in the halls yet dynamic on the football field, Barney has helped the Taylor Ducks win victories for the past year. This determination is sure to help him succeed in whatever he undertakes.

EUGENE KROPP

Vim, vigor, and vitality! Of course, we're speaking of none other than Eugene Kropp. If Eugene makes as good a businessman as he has a cheerleader, we know he'll be tops.

BILLYE JEAN LAWSON

If you hear someone singing, it is probably Billye Jean. She sings alto in the choral club and very well, too. Good luck to Billye, good-natured and pretty.

RUTH MAGER

Ruth is a great homemaker as you can plainly see when you look at the neat, attractive clothes she makes and in which she looks so nice.

C. W. MATTECK

Music! That's C. W.'s main interest, and we know by his musical ability shown in leading the band that he'll have success in that field.

ARTHUR McCARTY

Arthur, better known as "Mac", is bound by his talents either to be a great poet or inventor. Whichever it is, we hope his road is smooth.

SENIORS

CURTIS MEIER

"Pete", one of our easy going Seniors, is a friend of everyone. If you are ever around him, just ask him to whip you up a hamburger. You'll love 'em.

Y. F. MILLER

Musical and friendly, Y. F. has brought much enjoyment to students of T. H. S. with his spiningling cornet playing. This talent will bring great rewards for Y. F. we're sure.

LUCILLE MOENKE

Athletic from head to toe, Lucille will turn from sports to secretarial work after graduation. If she's as good a secretary as pitcher, she'll be a hit.

IRENE MOEHNKE

Irene, one of the athletic Moehnkes, hopes to become a housewife after graduation. We all wish her lots of luck!

LANELL REEVES

That short, blonde with a smile for everyone is Lanell, who has really given some very interesting reading to all through her efforts on the Cotton Boll Staff.

THOMAS RETA

Quiet yet talented describes Thomas. He contributes to the band with his cornet and is always ready to do his part.

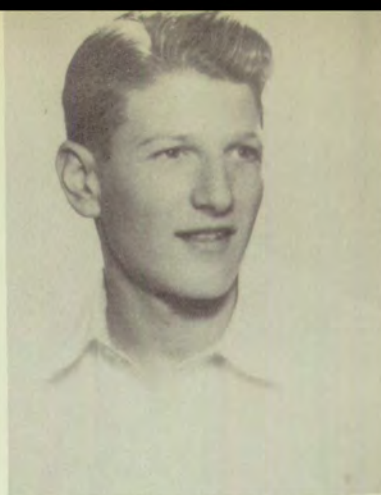

EILEEN RIEGER

Kind, likeable, and jolly in her own way, Eileen is a cute blonde and will make somebody a very efficient secretary.

EUGENE RIPPLE

Husky and handsome, Eugene was responsible for a lot of our gridiron victories. We know he will be a success in life, no matter what he does.

SENIORS

JACK ROGERS

With his curly hair and rosy cheeks, Jack is one of the handsomest boys in the Senior Class. Soon he will be ropin' and brandin' cattle up in them thar hills.

HOWARD SCHMIDT

If you've seen Gene Rydell, you've seen Howard, the boy with the blond hair and big blue eyes. These guys are better known as the "pool sharks" of T. H. S. A bright future!

GENE RYDELL

Cowboy deluxe, good-looking Gene will break the hearts of the city lasses when he retires to his ranch near Frameswitch.

EDGAR SALGE

Tall and likeable Edgar is a friend to everybody. He is perhaps best identified around T. H. S. for his work in the F. F. A. and as a player of the bass horn.

LEROY SCHULTZ

If you are ever around Leroy, be prepared for his card tricks. Being around Leroy, you can't be unhappy with that wonderful smile of his. Best dancer in school too.

LOUIS SEIDL

Personality-plus, that's Louis. He spends all his time working at the Humble Oil Refining Co. Good luck to one of the best.

HILLIARD SMITH

This boy, Hilliard, is loaded with talents. He can draw, and when he plays his guitar, it sounds wonderful. Here's wishing a swell classmate the best of everything!

KENNETH "SKIPPY" SMITH

"Skippy," we, your schoolmates, want you to know that we will always remember you as the boy who always had an excuse for class. Good luck to a swell fellow!

SENIORS

INEZ STIBA

Just because she's so little, we can't overlook Inez—not by a long shot. We know Inez with her poise and personality will make some one a capable stenographer.

RUTH ANN TIPTON

That cute blonde "record fiend" plans to traipse off to T. S. C. W. and major in speech. She'll leave us all very lonely for her and her gay air.

MARJORIE STIBA

Eyes of blue—that's Marjorie. We know that her winning smile is enough to brighten any business office.

JOE STONE

Feel tired and blue? Just go see Joe and he will cheer you up. We are sure the kids at John Tarleton will love Joe as much as we have.

PAT TORN

Ingrid Bergman doesn't have anything on our Pat. You never can tell—someday we might see her on the screen. Good luck to you, Pat, in whatever you do.

VERNA MAE WEEKS

Though we don't see much of Verna Mae, because she's always with Adolph, we will miss her quiet, though friendly, personality.

DOROTHY WENTRCEK

Quiet, friendly Dorothy is known all over the school. She has added a good deal to the band with her snare drum playing.

EMINELLE WOYTEK

Ask "Sugie" her favorite song and she'll tell you "Anchors Aweigh." Could it be because of that cute sailor, Bubba? Happy waiting, "Sugie".

SENIORS

TEDDY ZIEHE

Ted, the brainstorm of the Senior Class is going to Texas Lutheran College to become a preacher. Good luck, Ted, you are sure to be a success wherever you go.

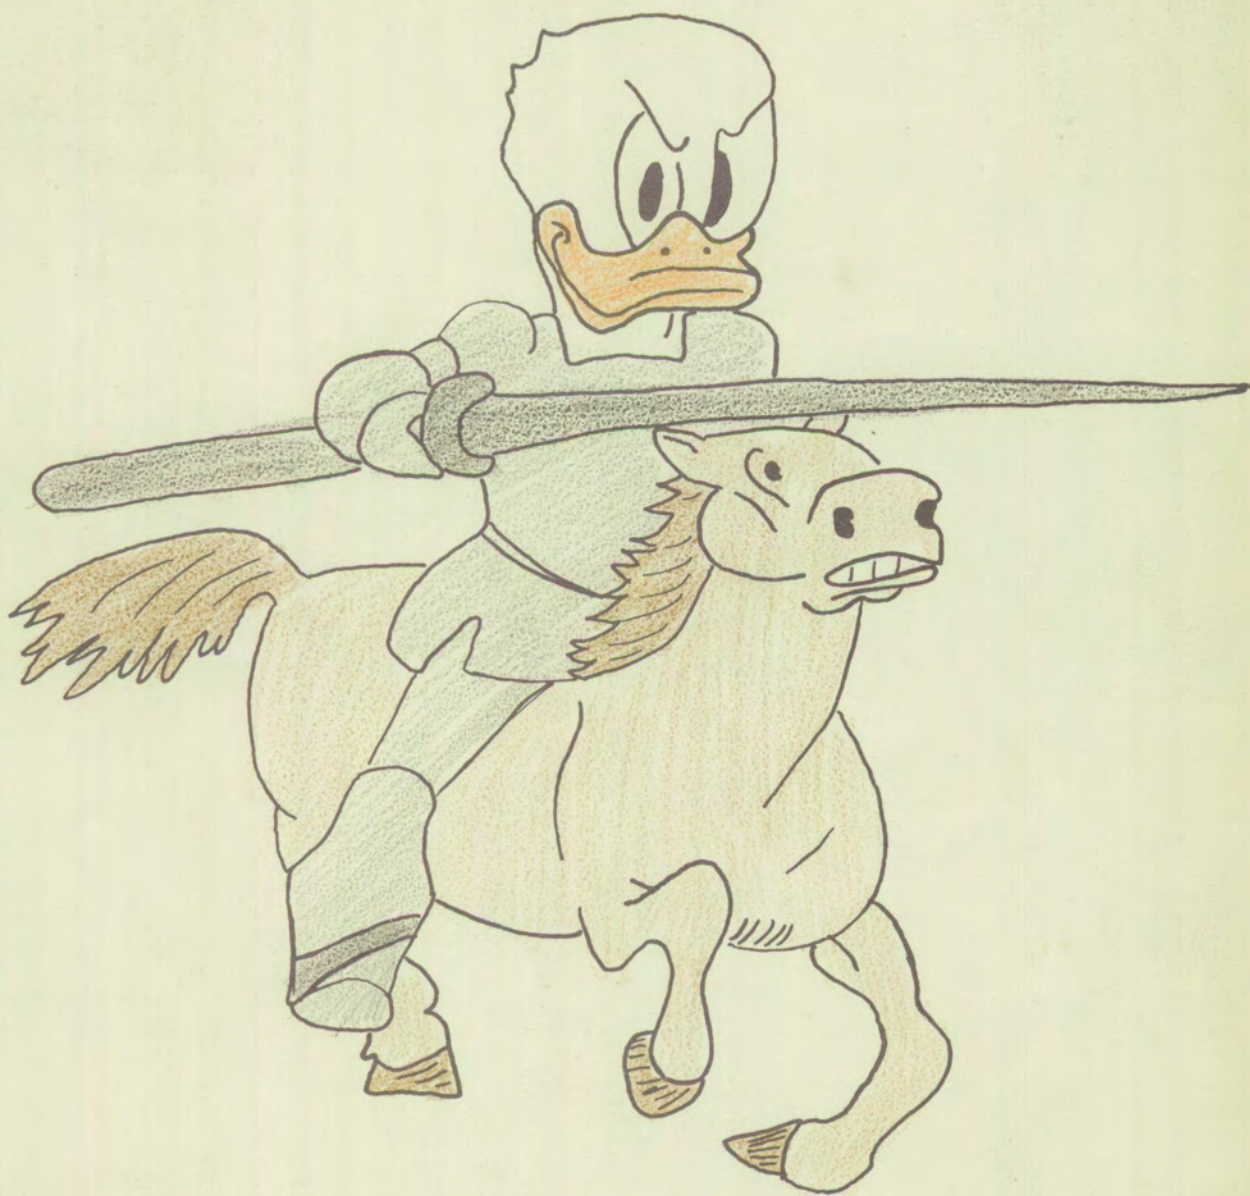

Marjorie Zoblotsky

Short but full of pep, that's Marjorie. She is well liked by everyone and will accomplish whatever she sets out to do.

IRENE ZULAUF

Excellent shorthand student — athletic — a homemaker—that's Irene. She'll make a wife or a working gal and be good at either.
