Police Arrest Shooting Suspect

TAYLOR, Texas – Taylor Police have arrested a suspect in a shooting that occurred in Robinson Park on Tuesday, August 14th. Xavier Gonzales, 18 years, of Taylor was arrested at the Taylor Police Department today following an investigation. On August 14th at approximately 9:20 pm, Gonzales shot Frankie Gomez, 22 years, of Taylor in Robinson Park, causing non-life threatening injuries. Gomez sustained a single gunshot wound to his upper left thigh area. The victim arrived at Scott & White Hospital in Taylor, where hospital staff notified Taylor Police of the incident. Taylor Police Detectives began an investigation, established probable cause, and obtained a warrant of arrest for Gonzales. When interviewed by Taylor Police Detectives, Gonzales confessed to shooting Gomez. Gonzales was transported to the Williamson County Jail where he was booked and charged with Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, a Second Degree Felony.

Related to this case, a 16 year old Juvenile male was arrested at Taylor High School this morning and charged with Theft from a Person, a state jail felony. The Juvenile was transported to the Juvenile Detention Facility in Georgetown.
